

HER

Combine the spellbinding soul of James Blake, the foot-tapping falsetto funk of Jungle, and a pair of completely distinct duet male vocals, and you've got the basic skeleton of rapidly emerging band, Her, out of Rennes in Northwestern France. The band's co-leaders and vocalists, Victor Solf and Simon Carpentier, kicked off the buzzing musical project just this month, releasing Her's first output as a statement-making six-track mixtape featuring four singles along with a mood-setting intro and interlude.
