@Apartmenthunter

Love the area. It's a nice community with plenty of amenities. I really love the all inclusive deal so I only have to write one check each month. I only had one problem when I moved in, and that was there was no washer and dryer in my apartment (which was included in the rent). The frustrating part is I came to check out my apartment 3 days before moving in and told the office that neither were in there then. I was assured they would be in there by movein day, but there were not. Two days later I was given a washer and dryer that both clearly had plenty of wear and tear on them. Like I said this one instance was irritating, but other than that I love my apartment.
