

UNDERRATED FOREIGN MUSIC

Digital Editorial

Purpose

My website will be designed for Americans (or non americans) who would like to expand their music library. Many people don't have time to search for music that's not being played on the radio. My website will make this easier for people.

Design Objectives

- Minimalistic
- Organized
- Photos of album covers & artists
- Social media Icons
- Video's of artists music

Functions

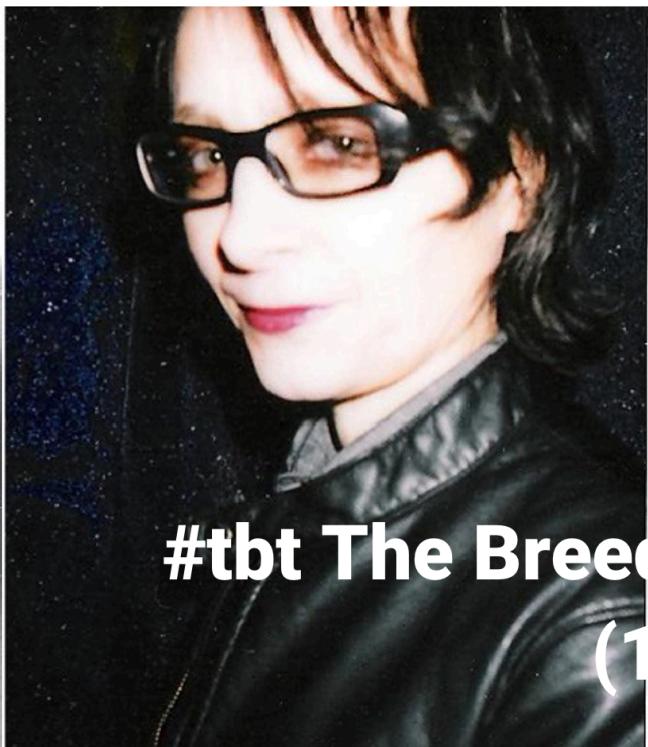

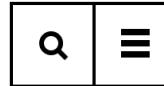

- be able to listen to the artist's music
- be linked to the artist's social media accounts/music streaming sites
- submit their music for a chance to be featured on the website
- Users will be able to contact the creators of the website for further questions or information.

HER

Combine the spellbinding soul of James Blake, the foot-tapping falsetto funk of Jungle, and a pair of completely distinct duet male vocals, and you've got the basic skeleton of rapidly emerging band, Her, out of Rennes in Northwestern France. The band's co-leaders and vocalists, Victor Solf and Simon Carpentier, kicked off the buzzing musical project just this month, releasing Her's first output as a statement-making six-track mixtape featuring four singles along with a mood-setting intro and interlude.
